With many global disruptions in travel – delays and even cancellations are becoming more regular. A good insurance policy for travel should cover you for these unexpected expenses from disruptions.

Customs and Culture

Croatia is slowly modernizing and aiming to catch up with Western Europe – albeit slowly... In some ways Croatia is a typical European nation and at the same time, very backwards compared to what you are used to – especially in reference to customer service, street noise, traffic and simply the slow way many Croatians go about their daily life! Not so long-ago Croatia was a Communist country... don't come to Croatia expecting the same levels of service and mannerisms typical of your homeland or other destinations - you may be disappointed. Instead, come with an open mind and take everything in stride – you wouldn't be travelling to foreign lands if you expected everything to be the same as home! Please acknowledge that mass tourism (with the exception of cruise ships in Dubrovnik), is not a regular occurrence, thankfully. Croatians struggle with our fast pace and high demands for customer service... Bear in mind that Croatia has suffered immensely during the Baltic Wars in the 1990's and many families and friends were divided as a result. Be sensitive about this when making enquiries and/or photographing sites and people. English is not as widely spoken in Croatia as in other European and Mediterranean holiday destinations but for the most part, we can use English nearly everywhere. Croatian language is complicated but try to obtain a few basic words and phrases. Here is a list to get you started!

resources can be scarce or just not available in some destinations. Decent sun creams, sun glasses and general cosmetics are best brought from home as well.

Dubrovnik / Zagreb arrival and departure Information

Remember that the tour starts and finishes in two separate locations. Dubrovnik is your ARRIVAL airport (DBV) and Zagreb is your DEPARTURE airport (ZAG). Please plan this accordingly when booking your flights. If you arrive earlier than the group (or intend to prolong your stay later), you can make your own way easily to/from the airport. A licensed, local taxi is the best recommendation for Croatia however the local bus services are safe, efficient and economical. These services run during the main hours of the business day and perhaps early or late arrivals may not have these bus links. Adventurebug can also pre-book group transfers should many of you be arriving or departing at the same time.

PLUG IN SOCKETS (CROATIA)

Electrical sockets (outlets) in Croatia are one of the two European standard electrical socket types: The "Type C" Europlug and the "Type F" Schuko. If your appliance's plug doesn't match the shape of these sockets, you will need a travel plug adapter in order to plug in. (This is the common plug/socket all over Europe now)

TYPE F PLUG

TYPE C EURO PLUG

NOTE – both plugs are the same for the wall
